2019 National Conference on Special Needs & Learning Support in Inclusive School

The National Conference on “Special Needs and Learning Support in Inclusive Education” will be held between Feb 18-19, 2019, at the Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for women, Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu, India.

The aim of the Conference is to introduce the different types of persons with special needs as per RPwD 2016 Act and their learning needs. This conference aims at sharing the experience on how to embed effective teaching practice in to inclusive set up and provide equitable quality education for all. This conference will explore latest thinking and research around effective learning support for pupils with special needs.

The Conference brings leading minds from across the country to discuss different inclusive education frameworks, with the vision of creating a ‘school for all’ in mind. It will help educational personnel who are searching for support to integrate children with different disabilities in the inclusive setup. Delegates will take away innovative, researched and proven practical ideas that can be easily implemented in the classroom and will significantly upgrade students learning capacities and outcomes.

The Conference will provide a welcoming space for academicians, professionals, researchers, teachers, policy makers and students from Education, Special Education and related fields from all over the country.
