

Pongal

REPORT

The program began with a Prayer song by Hari Priya from the Department of Music. The I UG students of IT Department left the audience energized with their performance of the famous Oyilattam.

Oyilattam

Vaishnavi from II MA. English, sensitized the students regarding the traditional ways of celebration of Pongal.

English Speech

The mesmerising speech by Madhana from III UG Maths was an eye-opener towards the importance of Pongal.

Tamil Speech

The traditional dance of Karakam was performed by students from the North-East, which was an eye-catching programme to everyone.

Karakam Dance

A traditional dance was performed by students from the Department of Zoology.

Traditional Dance

The students tapped their feet along to the folk dance by the III UG students.

Village Dance

The students were greeted by the dignitaries.

Dignitaries greeted the students

2018 - 2019

Christmas

REPORT

The event began with a prayer song invoking the presence of Almighty.

Prayer song

The audience were welcomed by Dr. (Mrs.) Vasantha Kalyani David, Professor, Department of Computer Science. The Christmas nativity play depicting the birth of baby Jesus was performed by the college students, which was an excellent performance.

Nativity Scene

The presidential address was given by Dr.P.R.Krishnakumar, Chancellor, Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Educationfor Women, Coimbatore-43,in which he appreciated the students who enacted the divine birth scene of Jesus Christ.

Presidential Address

Dr.T.S.K.Meenakshisundaram, Managing Trustee, Sri Avinashilingam Education Trust Institutions, Coimbatore - 43 conveyed his greetings for Christmas Rev.Charles Arumainayagam, Pastor, Zion Assemblies of God Church, Coimbatore appreciated the students who performed in the nativity play. In his Christmas message, he spoke about the unconditional love of Jesus Christ which only God can give.

Rev.Charles Arumainayagam, Pastor appreciated the students

Dr. (Mrs.) Premavathy Vijayan, Vice Chancellor, Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for Women, Coimbatore - 43 and Dr. (Mrs.) S.Kowsalya, Registrar, Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for Women, Coimbatore - 43 felicitated the gathering and conveyed their wishes.'

Vice Chancellor Dr.Premavathy Vijayan and Registrar S.Kowsalya conveyed their wishes

The arrival of Santa Claus made the celebration more wonderful.

Santa Claus gifting the children

The programme came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr.(Mrs.)M.Sylvia Subapriya, Professor, Department of Food Science and Nutrition