IQAC REPORT

The Induction Programme for newly Recruited Faculty Members (10.08.2016)

An Induction Program is aimed to assist the newly recruited Faculty members to become familiar with the culture of the Institute and to develop an understanding of policies and practices at central and local level, to acquire an understanding of how the Institute works and their role contributing to the success of the Institute.

Prof .Dr. N.Vasugi delivered a talk on “Participatory Learning Methods”

She explained Participatory methods (such as group model-building exercise, focus groups, role playing games and card sorting) that are applied in small to medium sized groups. During the application of participatory methods, stakeholders can learn about each other’s perspectives on a particular problem.

Prof .Dr. A.Parvathi gave a lecture on “Methods of Assessment and Evaluation”

The assessment and evaluation process followed in our Institute is explained properly and a manual on evaluation process is given to each faculty.

Prof. Dr. G.P. Jeyanthi talked on “Intellectual Property Right and Patents”

She conveyed Intellectual Property problem is critical to fostering innovation. These rights play a major role in protecting new innovations and the minds behind them . She also spoke about the various Intellectual Property assets, the need for IPR, the items that can be protected, criteria for granting patents and the rights of the patents owner and motivated the new teachers to apply for patents.

Prof. Dr. G.Padmavathi instructed the “ICT Usage in Teaching”

She expressed that Information and Communications Technology (ICT) can impact student learning when teachers are digitally literate and understand how to integrate it into curriculum. The methods of ICT generally used in higher education are introduced to the new teacher present there.

Prof. Dr. N.S. Rohini explained the methods of “Stress Management” The sessions were delivered in three parts. ‘General awareness, stress at work and management’. The session started with an ice-breaker. This facilitated an ease in the participants to become interactive and lively. The participants were educated on the different types of stress mainly physical, emotional and psychological. They were further given real life examples on positive and negative stress.

Prof. Dr. U. Jerinabi gave the importance of “Governance and Leadership”

Governance is the process of decision making of the process by which decisions implemented. A team working under an effective leader with quality leadership will always perform the best and set an example for members from other organization’s practices.

The newly recruited staff member were enlightened with the ideas and information shared by the expert
