

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT

Feedback is one of the most potent strategy that an institute can use to re-design its curriculum and also to bring in the required. modifications in various spheres of economic activities.

- Students suggested the need for job oriented courses, training for facing interviews during campus selection. They also requested to provide career guidance and expert talks by industrialists.
- Research manuscript quality check can be made free access.
- Faculty-student interaction may be enhanced. Smart class programmes may be made effective
- Well Equipped laboratories equipped with advanced instruments can be made available
- Library facilities must be augmented to meet the current requirement of the students to enable efficient learning .
- As extension activities are part of the curriculum, more activities suiting the current needs were to be organised
- Curriculum may be revised including new topics. Flexibility in curriculum and need for skill oriented courses was suggested. The curriculum should include advanced learning module.

Conclusion

Periodical and meaningful feedback is a cornerstone of learning. In the history of learning, feedback has always been central. In our campus too, we stress on getting feedback from students, parents, teachers, alumni and the employers. This has helped us in the past to evaluate and assess our weakness and take corrective measures for the achievement of our vision.

Feedback analysis report

Feedback that informs professional growth opportunities for education as well as targeted learning improvements for students should be viewed as an additional lens that teachers can use to reflect more deeply on their teaching practice.

- Teachers are appointed as a part of curriculum development committee. Suggestions from all faculties regarding curriculum revision are considered. Inputs are taken for revision of syllabus.
- Case study approach may be introduced. Group assignments and projects to be given
- E- Waste recycling must be encouraged among student community
- Evaluation of departmental activities and action plans may be implemented with inputs from subject experts to improve the curriculum.

- Refresher courses to enrich the learning experience of the faculty may be organised
- Research quality may be enhanced by collaborative research with other institutions in India and abroad
- Research activities must be strengthened by conducting research conventions and conferences
- Remote access can be provided to e-Journals.

Conclusion

Like all things practice makes perfect when it comes to providing feedback. Feedback clarifies expectation, helps people learn from their mistakes and builds confidence. It is important and most powerful indicator that enhances achievement. In order to develop our system we have identified and noted the views and suggestions of stakeholders and necessary action was carried out of the betterment of the institute.
